

Programs Approved for Exemption of the UCF Academic Integrity Workshop Requirement

The College of Graduate Studies has approved the following graduate programs for exemption of the Academic Integrity workshop requirement. Students in these programs are encouraged to attend the Academic Integrity workshops but are not required to do so. These students must still complete the CITI Responsible Conduct of Research training requirement, which is not included in this exemption.

Students must take the course listed below for their program. No substitution or waiver is allowed.

- Clinical Psychology Ph.D. – CLP 7623 Ethical and Professional Issues in Clinical Psychology
- Curriculum and Instruction EdD (previously named Education EdD) – EDF 7494 Identifying Complex Problems of Practice
- Education Ph.D. – IDS 7501 Issues and Research in Education
- Educational Leadership EdD – Executive Track – EDF 7471 Research in Leadership 1
- Educational Leadership EdD – Higher Education track – EDH 7040 Research on the College Student (exemption only applies to students admitted in Fall 2019 or later)
- Hospitality Management Ph.D. – HMG 7588 Research Seminar Hospitality and Tourism
- Industrial and Organizational Psychology Ph.D. – INP 7081 Professional Issues in Industrial and Organizational Psychology
- Kinesiology Ph.D. – IDS 7501 Issues and Research in Education
- Nursing DNP – NGR 7855 Evidence-Based Practice Development for DNP
- Nursing Ph.D. – NGR 7805 Doctoral Scholarship
- Physical Therapy DPT – PHT 6606 Research Methods in Physical Therapy (exemption only applies to students admitted Summer 2020 or later)
- Sociology Ph.D. – SYA 7309 Advanced Sociological Research Methods (exemption applies only to students admitted prior to Fall 2017)