Academic Program Approval

The duration of the parental leave applies specifically to the graduate assistantship position. However, Academic Program Approval indicates that all faculty who are involved with the student's graduate study have been informed and will work with the student to develop and complete plans as necessary to make up the academic work missed during the parental leave.

If this leave request is approved, the College of Graduate Studies will pay the assistantship stipend equal to the rate of the existing assistantship agreement(s) during the approved leave period. Arrangements for this payment will be coordinated with the contact person provided below.

If you wish, you may hire a replacement at your own expense to fill the duties of the student on leave. This hire may be done using a short-term OPSGRD or a Supplemental Assignment for an existing graduate assistant. The Supplemental Assignment will be approved by the College of Graduate Studies as long as the replacement is in good academic standing with at least a Graduate Status GPA of 3.0 and has a history of academic progress in the degree program.
